There are two loves in my life: money and women.

What can I say? I'm a simple man.

Unfortunately, my passions make it hard to behave, and the board of directors in my company is getting nervous.

America's most eligible bachelor just bought the biggest lingerie fashion company in the country, Cupid's Arrows.

The message from my advisors—don't look at any of the models sideways.

You've got to be kidding me. Do they realize who I am?

But I behave... until the top model walks in the room.

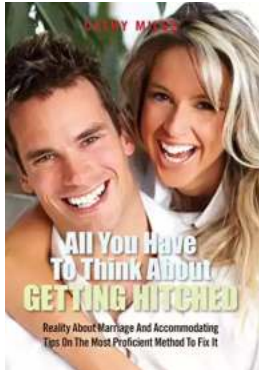

She's my personal challenge poured into an hourglass figure.

I'm hurting in all the best ways. Best part? She makes me second-guess everything I thought I knew about what I wanted in life.

All of a sudden, one night isn't enough. Not with her.

It's a hands-off situation though. My hands off her. And it's not working.

It would seem that cupid has shot his arrow, and he used my heart for his practice round.
