This book is a collection of short stories and articles based on Motorcycle Clubs, Culture, History and Traditions. It is based on many years of riding with one of the oldest Motorcycle Clubs in the United States. These stories come from the road and bring to life the late night musings of old saddle tramps. They span from the violent to the super-natural but are all done with an authenticity that only comes with miles spent rolling down the freeway with your club brothers. I hope you enjoy them.
