"Who was this Grace Waterstone? Obviously she was related to me, but how?

Why had she never reached out to me before? Why hadn't my grandmother ever mentioned her?

Why on earth did I get the house when surely there must be a more direct relative?"

Alyssa Waterstone doesn't need anyone. A high-flying criminal defense attorney, she's smart, independent, and living in the fastest lane of all - New York City.

The more she drives herself in her career, the more she can forget her tragic past... until a manila envelope arrives one day with strange and unexpected news.

Alyssa is forced to leave the city behind for a small seaside town called Clearwater Bay, where she'll find a deepening well of mystery. And a handyman whose gentle eyes seem to be calling her home...

In the fourth instalment of "The Beach House" series, tempers run high, old memories rear their ugly heads, and Alyssa is forced to choose what's important to her.
