The Fallen are gone.

The world is at peace.

But the belief that the danger they pose has vanished is only an illusion.

For the last seven years Delaney McPhearson has led a quiet life. She's used her notoriety to start charitable works across the globe.

Yet her world remains unsettled. Max's prophecy for the future lays heavily on her mind. She's kept that message of a violent showdown from her friends and family, wanting them to enjoy the peace they've so painfully earned. For Laney though, each moment of joy is accompanied by a ticking clock counting down.

And now the ticking has stopped.

An old enemy returns and is trying to turn back the clock to a time when the Fallen had their powers. Laney must jump into the fight again. But after so much time, is she still up to the task?
