The gripping drama continues in this second installment of the Emerald Raven series, The Raven's Fall.

Tori McKinley is still reeling from the discovery that the professor who offered her a once-in-a-lifetime internship isn't what—or who—he seems. In fact, he's a CIA officer on a covert mission whose decision to involve her has now put everyone she loves in danger. She must accept his protection, but this wary single mom refuses to give in to his seduction. At least, not until he reveals all his secrets.

Logan Ravenschall isn't easily surprised. But when his rescue operation is preempted, he's woefully unprepared. New developments will force him to accept help from an unlikely source to ensure Tori and her loved ones' safety.

As an invisible web of corruption threatens to entangle them all, the attraction between Tori and Logan will ignite. It's anyone's guess if the pair can overcome their rocky beginnings, but if they do, the resulting heat could set fire to anything that stands in their path.
