DESCRIPTION:

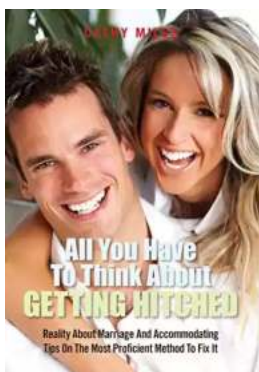

Ryan Mallardi is being counseled by Fr. Liam, as managing a thriving private investigation business, a dependent single mom and a beautiful but somewhat demanding girlfriend can be tricky – or maybe he just enjoys having a surrogate father as he grew up without one.

Fr. Liam and his brother Mike, after an organized campaign of influence, finally talk Maria, Mike's wife, into moving to Ocala, two blocks away from Fr. Liam's church. The brothers are thrilled they will be reunited very soon. Everything is working out better than they could have hoped.

Suddenly, life serves up some unexpected events that change the dynamic between everyone, including Fr. Liam's brother, his sister-in-law, and his niece, Colleen -- even Ryan.

SERIES vs. STAND-ALONE EBOOKS: Each book contains enough history and background to be read as a standalone book. Each book contains a mystery, crime or psychological drama that has a beginning and an end. They are, of course, best enjoyed reading in order as the character arcs and the family drama play out from book to book. If you like family sagas with a bit of mystery and intrigue, you will enjoy reading the Ryan Mallardi Private Investigator Series in order from start to finish.

TRIGGER WARNING: There seem to be a theme or two in the books that may trigger some women who see cooking and/or traditional marriage as some sort of abuse or at the very least, problematic. So if you don't like priests or women who cook or do other "traditional family things", this may not be the eBook series for you.
